

Interview a Historical Figure

Use available primary and secondary sources to imagine your historical figure's responses to the following questions. Be sure to add in two of your own questions at the end and your historical figure's responses.

Name of Interviewer: _____

Name of Interviewee: _____

Date of Interview: _____

Interviewee's Residence (City and/or County, State): _____

How and why did you end up living where you do now?

How would you describe your life right now? What has happened in your life since the end of the Revolutionary War?

Would you say that things have turned out how you expected after the war? Why and/or why not?

Are you happy with the state of the United States of America? Why and/or why not? What about the state of people of African descent within this country? Why and/or why not?

What is one hope you have for the future of the United States of America? What about for people of African descent within this country?

If you could go back and tell your younger self one thing, what would you say and when would you say it? Why?

Your Question 1:
Response:

Your Question 2:
Response: