

Location and Life

Complete the first empty column with information you've researched about your first location. This may include information about your specific location or the general region (New England, Middle, Southern colonies).

Once you have finished your first column, complete the second empty column with researched information about the second location. Make sure that your second location is in a different region from your first location.

	First Location:	Second Location:
Basic Information
Geography
Weather (think different seasons)
Languages spoken & heard
Complex Information
Types of Education
Popular Foods
Economic Opportunities
Pastimes/Activities
Potential Faiths
Popular Clothing Styles		