

PEOPLE OF THE REVOLUTION

OBSERVATIONS

*Use this space to record some of your observations about these objects and what you believe each of their connections is to the American Revolution.
For example: What do these objects appear to be? What are they made of? What, if any, markings or images are on them? Etc.*

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What groups of people would these objects have been most strongly connected to? Why?

2. Do you find any of the information you learned about these objects or the people connected to them to be surprising? Why or why not?

3. What new information does this give you about people living in British North America during the late 18th Century?

REVOLUTIONARY PEOPLE COMPARE/CONTRAST

Consider the needs and concerns that may have been important to some of the different people in North America during the Revolutionary Era. Choose two of these groups of people to represent in the Venn-diagram below. Use the Venn-diagram to compare and contrast their needs, wants, and concerns. Consider what these may have been before the Revolutionary War, during the War, and when the new American government was being created after the War.
